

CLOTHING, SHOES, HATS & GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS

A Specialty

For 2 years we have made this line a specialty and we can say without boasting that we carry the best, largest and most up-to-date line in Pickens County. We are buying the largest Fall stock in the history of our business. We will have the largest stock of Clothing ever shown in this town. If we can't fit you out of stock we have The International Company's line of samples and we can take your measure for a suit or overcoat, guaranteeing a fit and satisfaction. If your suit is made by The International it is right as every judge of good clothes knows it to be the best tailoring concern in the world. Besides being several dollars cheaper to the suit they are far superior to any other make in style, fit and quality.

Personal

Green-ville last week.

Master A. J. Boggs, who has been quire ill with fever, is well enough to be out of his room.

D. B. Cooper is now opening up a stock of groceries in the building formerly occupied by him.

Troup Partridge is off duty this week, nursing a large, well-developed boil on his hand.

The singing at the home of Mrs. J. F. Cauley, Sunday evening, was greatly enjoyed by those present.

Geo. Welborn, son of M. J. Welborn, is taking a high stand in his class at Furman. His sister, Ellen, is attending the G. F. C.

The Southern Express Co. will not turn over any express to the Pickens R. R. any more, except on the written order of the consignee. This town needs an express service of some kind.

W. B. Allgood believes a farmer should raise everything on the farm he can, and always has something to sell. He is now furnishing this market with as fine sweet potatoes as generally come here. He presented this office with three which weigh 12½ pounds.

Mrs. Joe Hammond died on the night of the 27th ult., aged about 70 years. She leaves three children, one daughter and two sons. Her remains were laid to rest the day following her death at Antioch church, Rev. L. White conducting the funeral services.

Born, on the 2d inst., to Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Bolt, a daughter.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Looper, on the 30th ult., a boy.

T. D. Harris is receiving very flattering reports as to the progress his son Willie is making in his studies at Wofford College.

Miss Nora Cauley has returned from a six weeks' visit to relatives in Oconee county. She was accompanied home by her sister, Mrs. Barron.

See notice of election for high school for Pickens, and turn out and vote in favor of it. Let us all do all we can to get better educational advantages than we have already.

Miss Mattie Thomason, of Rock Hill, has come to Pickens to engage in dressmaking. She is located at the Pickens Inn. Miss Thomason is highly recommended as a modiste and we ask that our readers give her their patronage.

Hon. Geo. S. Legare and his excellent family bade adieu to their summer surroundings in Pickens, Tuesday, and bled themselves to their home in the "City by the Sea," much to the regret of their many friends here, who are glad to see them come but sorry to see them leave.

Charles L. Careton, at the earnest solicitation of Gov. Ansel, has accepted the position of chief of the constabulary in Charleston. If Mayor Rhett is really in earnest in his efforts to suppress the blind tigers he has a tireless worker and faithful, fearless and vigilant officer in Charlie Careton. Gov. Ansel is to be congratulated on procuring the services of this superb officer and gentleman to help maintain the dignity of the law. Charlie has only agreed to work until the new year.

Miss Cannie Brooks is indisposed at this writing.

Next Monday is Salesday. Some valuable land will be sold.

Born unto Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Looper on the 30th ult., a son.

The Presbyterian S. S. of Sunset will observe Sabbath school day on the evening of the first Sabbath in October. Exercises will begin at 7.30 p. m. The public invited.

W. T. Jeanes claims to be the champion hog-raiser of the town, with B. F. Parsons a close second. "Bill's" is a little the fattest, but "Ben's" pig is a little bit the biggest. Neither one need be at all ashamed of their pigs, for they are both certainly beauties and have got more sausage, spareribs and back-bones in them than any pigs in town.

J. E. Allgood, who has been attending school here, has been listening to the siren call of the wild, and on Wednesday he pulled up stakes for the West. He will probably land in Missouri, where he has two brothers, who are doing well. J. E. is a son of W. B. Allgood, which is tantamount to saying he will succeed wherever he may choose to settle.

The Seventy-eighth annual session of the Twelve Mile River Baptist association will convene with Keowee Baptist church, beginning Saturday, the 10th instant. Introductory sermon to be preached by Rev. J. B. Cates, B. C. Atkinson alternate. Keowee church is located ten miles west of Pickens near the Keowee river at Nummons bridge.
